HOPE PUBLISHING COMPANY CHICAGO

FOREWORD

POR thirty years or more I have compiled and edited music books for Sunday School and Church use, and directed large assemblages in services of song.

The books that bear my name are many. Not a few of them were, and still are, large sellers, but it is my honest opinion that none of my past successes come nearer meeting my high ideal of what a practical all-round and modern music book ought to be than the volume now in your hand. It is my latest and, all things considered, my very best and most satisfactory endeavor.

That "Joy to the World" will have a large and even a phenomenal sale goes without saying. The intrinsic merits of this collection coupled with the resources, originality and resourcefulness of the Hope Publishing Company assure that fact.

 From victory unto victory

 Till every foe is vanquished
 And Christ is Lord indeed.
- 2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,

 Forth to the mighty conflict,
 In this His glorious day:
 "Ye that are men, now serve Him,"
 Against unnumbered foes;
 Your courage rise with danger,
 And strength to strength oppose.
- 3 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
 Stand in His strength alone;
 The arm of flesh will fail you;
 Ye dare not trust your own:
 Put on the gospel armor,
 Each piece put on with prayer;
 Where duty calls, or danger,
 Be never wanting there.
- 4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
 The strife will not be long;
 This day the noise of battle,
 The next the victor's song:
 To him that overcometh,
 A crown of life shall be;
 He with the King of glory
 Shall reign eternally.

RESPONSIVE READINGS

No. 281. PSALM 1.

- 1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
- 2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.
- 3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither, and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
- 4 The ungodly are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
- 5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
- 6 For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

No. 282. PSALM 5.

- 1 Give ear to my words, 0 Lord, consider my meditation.
- 2 Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King and my God; for unto thee will I pray.
- 3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.
- 4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.
- 5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.
- 6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the Lord will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.
- 7 But as for me, I will come unto thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.
- 8 Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

No. 283. PSALM 8.

- 1 O Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

- 3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;
- 4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?
- 5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor.
- 6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

- 4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

- 6 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.
- 7 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be made innocent from the great transgression.

- 3 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.
- 4 One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple.
- 5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion; in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.
- 6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me; therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises anto the Lord.

- 5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:
- 6 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.
- 7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
- 8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.
- 9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.
- 10 They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.
- 11 But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: and the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

- 6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power:
- 7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.
- 8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid of thy tokens: *hou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening rejoice.

- 9 Behold, O God, our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.
- 10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, that to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

No. 306. PSALM 142.

1 I cried unto the Lord with my voice; with my voice unto the Lord did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaint before Him: I showed before Him my trouble.

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

5 I cried unto thee, O Lord: I said, thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.

6 Attend unto my cry: for I am brought very low; deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.

7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about, for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

No. 309. ISAIAH 53.

- 1 Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?
- 2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground; he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.
- 3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.
- 4 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.
- 5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.
- 6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

No. 310. JOHN 3 1-6; 14-18.

- 1 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:
- 2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.
- 3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
- 4 Nicodemus said unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
- 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
- 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
- 7 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness; even so must the Son of man be lifted up:
- 8 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

- 9 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
- 10 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.
- 11 He that believeth on him is not condemned; but he that believeth not is condemned already; because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

No. 311. ISAIAH 55.

- 1 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.
- 2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.
- 3 Incline your ear, and come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.
- 4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people.
- 5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run into thee because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.
- 6 Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:
- 7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the uprighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

No. 312. MATTHEW 11: 20-30.

- 1 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:
- 2 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.
- 3 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

- 4 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell; for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.
- 5 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.
- 6 At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth; because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.
- 7 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.
- 8 All things are delivered unto me of my Father; and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.
- 9 Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
- 10 Take my yoke upon you and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls.
- 11 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

- 2 Keeping watch over their flock by night.
- 3 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them:
 - 4 And they were sore afraid.
- 5 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.
- 6 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.
- 7 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising. God, and saying,
- 8 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good-will toward men.
- 9 Now lettest thou thy servant depart, Lord, according to thy word, in peace;

- 10 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all peoples;
- 11 A light for revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

- 1 Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?
- 2 They that tarry long at the wine: they that go to seek mixed wine.
- 3 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his color in the the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder.
- 4 Be not drunk with wine. Be not among wine bibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh.
- 5 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.
- 6 Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.
- 7 None of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.
- 8 Let us not judge one another anymore: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.
- 9 The kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.
- 10 He that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.
- 11 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.
- 12 For meat destroy not the work of God. It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

No. 315. PROV. 3.

- 1 My son, forgot not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments:
- 2 For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.
- 3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart.
- 4 So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and men.
- 5 Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.
- 6 In all thy way acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.
- 7 Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the Lord and depart from evil.

- 1 And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:
- 2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,
- 3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- 4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
- 5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
- 6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
- 7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
- 8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
- 9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.
- 10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- 11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
- 12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Faith of Our Fathers.

No. 317. The Apostles' Creed.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrecton of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

No. 318. 1 COR. 13.

- 1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal.
- 2 And though I have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge: and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.
- 3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.
- 4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,
- 5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;
- 6 Rejoice not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;
- 7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
- 8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.
- 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
- 10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

O Lord, preserve our King; Long may he reign: His heart inspire and move With wisdom from above, And in a nation's love His throne maintain. 3.

Thy choicest gifts in store,
On him be pleased to pour;
Long may he reign:
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the King.

 O bless and magnify His name.

 And shall from age to age endure.

ORCHESTRAL SUGGESTIONS

FIRST VIOLIN

This part in most cases is a duplicate of the melody or soprano part of the hymn. Experienced players, who play fluently in the second and third positions, may play the part as if written an octave higher (8 vo.) which will add brilliancy to the general effect. This part may also be used for Oboe, C clarinet or Cornet.

SECOND VIOLIN

This part is either a duplicate of the alto part, or when double stops are used, a combination of alto and tenor. Sometimes an accompaniment figure of broken chords is used. Only experienced players should attempt to play double stops, as it is absolutely essential that all play in strict tune. Less experienced players should play "divisi," that is, divided into two sections, one playing the upper and one the lower part.

VIOLA

This part has been written as a transposed violin part, sounding a fifth lower than it appears in print. The necessity for learning the viola clef, always an obstacle to violinists, has thus been done away with, and any violinist may now play this part exactly as if written for his own instrument. As the viola is larger than the violin, the fingers should be placed a little farther apart than on a violin.

Viola players being conversant with the violin clef, must remember to read it as used on a violin. As the viola is a necessary component of the string quartette, this manner of writing for the instrument should help introduce it where the difficulty of reading the clef has been heretofore the main obstacle. Any fairly large violin may be strung and used as a viola where no viola is available. This of course, is only a makeshift.

CELLO

The cello is a free lance. Sometimes it follows the bass part literally, again it follows the tenor, and still again it plays an octave lower in unison with the soprano. And at other times an independent obligato part has been considered more effective. Only an experienced cellist should attempt the cello part; a second cellist, or a less experienced one, should play the lower or bass part.

RASS

The bass follows the vocal bass part as far as the harmonic basi is concerned. In many cases the rhythm of the vocal parts has not been adhered to in order that the general effect might be more sustained rather than the staccato effect inseparable from rapid passages when played on this instrument.

FLUTE

The flute is generally a duplicate of the soprano part in the upper octave. In many instances, especially in the more brilliant numbers, interesting chord figurations, scale passages and trills are included in order to enhance the general effectiveness of this instrument. Beginners may play the first violin part an octave higher than written.

FIRST AND SECOND CLARINET

This part generally forms a second or an alto to the flute part, although for the sake of interest the two parts sometimes are interchanged. In some cases an in-dependent part consisting of melodic variations and accompaniment chord and arpeggio figures has been supplied to interest advanced performers. Beginners or second clarinet players may play from first or second cornet parts. Use care always to note first before playing, whether the part is written for B flat or for A clarinet. Most organs and pianos are now tuned to international pitch, so be sure that your clarinet is a "low" pitch your clarinet is a "low" pitch instrument. It is difficult to play a high pitch instrument in tune, although it can be approached by drawing out the mouthpiece about one-half inch (approximately). A clarinet should play from the first violin part.

FIRST AND SECOND CORNET

These parts are written upon the same staff and follow in general the soprano and alto parts respectively. Be sure, before playing, to note whether the part is written for B flat or for A cornet. Most modern cornets are provided with a quick change slide to A. Ascertain also if your instrument is in tune with the organ or piano. While the parts are written full, it sometimes adds to the general effect to rest during the verses and softer passages, and then play the choruses, refrains and louder passages, thus adding the very desirable quality of contrast — high-light and shadow. Two cornets are amply sufficient to balance a dozen violins.

THE TROMBONE

The trombone is the cello of the brass instruments, though not mearly so nimble of speech, and much more grave and solemn ot tone, especially in the lower register. It is of admirable effect, when sparingly used, in the softer passages. Too much of the trombone tone is a grave fault in the orchestra as this instrument is unusually prominent and cannot be too carefully played. The two clefs are used so that, in the absence of a trombone, the treble part may be played by a Bb baritone reading the same as a Bb cornet.

FRENCH HORNS

These instruments when properly used, will serve to add fine mellow coloring to the lower register of the harmony. They are generally employed to duplicate the tenor and bass parts and will be found at their best when sustaining long notes, thus giving firmness and resonance to the harmony, as no other instruments. They should be employed wherever available as their use will enhance the effectiveness of the orchestra very much without disturbing in the slightest the general balance of tone. Great care has been taken in these arrangements to make all the horn parts easily playable. They should be used in pairs to bring out their best effects, but when only one is available, the upper part should always be used, as the lower one is often in unison with the trombone

PLACING THE ORCHESTRA

Orchestras are usually seated in the form of a half circle, the higher strings (1st violins) in the middle and nearest the director, the lower strings (2nd violins, violas, cellos and basses) to the left of the director as he stands facing the platform, the wood wind (flutes, clarinets, etc.) next the director on the right, then the brass (cornets, horns, trombone) still farther to the right. This order is the one usually followed as it gives all an equal chance to see the director.

Undue prominence of any one instrument is generally (unless a solo part) an evidence of bad taste on the part of the player. In an orchestra, the clarinets, cornets and trombone should strive to subdue and mellow their tone in order that balance and orchestral blending may be possible. One trombone will balance a dozen violine.
